

Glue	Almost three-quarters (74%) of Jews in Britain observe Rosh Hashana in some form.	jpr /
Glue	88% of British Jews have been to Israel at least once.	jpr /
Glue	About 630,00 Israelis live outside Israel. Europe is home to about one-third of them.	jpr /
Glue	Nearly 70% of secular Jews in the USA and almost 50% in Europe are married to non-Jews.	jpr /
Glue	Two-thirds of Jews in Europe say 'feeling part of the Jewish People' is essential to their Jewishness.	jpr /
Glue	Belgium has the largest proportion of Jews identifying as Orthodox in its Jewish population.	jpr /
Glue	Only about half of all Jews in Europe identify with a particular denomination.	jpr /
Glue	34% of European Jews eat only kosher meat at home.	jpr /

 Glue	Only one in three British Jews believe in God 'as described in the Bible'.	jpr /
Glue	About six in ten British Jews attend Friday night meals most weeks.	jpr /
Glue	A majority of Dutch Jewish children today are either Israel-born or born to Israeli parents.	jpr /
Glue	There are about 2.1 million Haredi Jews today, out of a total global Jewish population of 15.3 million.	jpr /
Glue	Just under half (47%) of European Jews typically light candles on Friday night.	jpr /
Glue	94% of Jews in the UK say that morals and ethical behaviour are important parts of their Jewishness.	jpr /
Glue	Over 300,000 Jews live in South America, more than half of those are in Argentina.	jpr /
Glue	In Belgium, 42% of Jews keep Sabbath according to Halacha (Jewish law). In Hungary, it's only 4%.	jpr /
Glue	Nearly 9 out of 10 British Jews report making at least one charitable donation yearly.	jpr /